HISTORY OF THE 112TH INFANTRY

This book contains the photographs of the officers and soldiers of the 112th Infantry. This Regiment is a composite organization made up largely out of two infantry units of the Pennsylvania National Guard, i. e., the 16th Pennsylvania Infantry, National Guard, and the 8th Pennsylvania National Guard.

These two organizations, along with the other units comprising the Pennsylvania National Guard, were under the call of the President on July 3, 1917; called to Federal service on July 15, 1917. This call was met and these organizations were mustered into Federal service.

By proclamation of the President, dated July 3, 1917, all the officers and men of the Pennsylvania National Guard were discharged from the Pennsylvania National Guard on August 5, 1917, and thereafter have been a part of the United States Army, entirely divorced and separated from State supervision and control.

At time of call to Federal service the Pennsylvania National Guard was organized into a division, known as the 7th Division. On being released from State control the Pennsylvania National Guard became the 28th Division.

The regiments of the Division, on the date of the call, were organized on the basis of one hundred and fifty men per infantry company, with three regiments to a brigade and three infantry brigades to a division.

At varying dates in September, 1917, the Division assembled in mobilization camp, "Camp Hancock," Augusta, Ga., the 16th Pennsylvania Infantry arriving September 10, 1917, and the 8th Pennsylvania Infantry on September 12, 1917.

In accordance with instructions from the Adjutant General of the Army, the 28th Division was reorganized by General Order No. 22, Headquarters 28th Division, dated October 11, 1917. Thereafter the old 16th Pennsylvania National Guard became known as the "112th Infantry," required to have two hundred and fifty men and six officers per company, and being one of the two regiments composing the 56th Infantry Brigade. In compliance with this order, sufficient men were transferred from the 8th Infantry to complete the requisite numbers called for in the new Table of Organization, which transfer was accomplished under date of October 17, 1917. At the same time all officers of the 8th Infantry were attached to the 112th Infantry, and such of them as were needed to fill the existing vacancies were assigned to this regiment for duty.

The plan followed in the transfer was to assign both officers and men from the 8th Pennsylvania Infantry to units in the 112th Infantry corresponding with the one in which they served in the 8th Pennsylvania Infantry, so far as they were needed or available to bring those units to the numerical strength fixed by the new Table of Organization.

The nucleus around which the new organization was built was the 16th Pennsylvania Infantry, National Guard, which bears an enviable record of valiant service to State and Country. Organized in 1878, with General John A. Wiley, a veteran of the Civil War, as its first Colonel, it has had since its organization but three Colonels: General John A. Wiley, from December 3, 1878, to January 25, 1887; General Willis J. Hulings, from March 3, 1887, to August 28, 1907, and its present Commander, Colonel George C. Rickards, from September 9, 1907.

During the Spanish-American War this regiment saw service in Porto Rico and participated in several engagements, in which it bore its part well, as can be easily ascertained on reference to the War Department Records. Among the engagements in which the Regiment participated might be mentioned the Battle of Coamo, where the Regiment conducted itself so well that several of its officers were favorably mentioned in official dispatches for coolness under fire, among whom may be mentioned Colonel A. D. Burns, retired, then in command of Company "C."

During the Porto Rican campaign Colonel Hulings was promoted to Brigadier General and Colonel Rickards to Colonel in command of the Regiment. At the close of the war and muster-out of Federal service, General Hulings and Colonel Rickards, respectively, resumed their rank as Colonel and Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment.

At the close of the Spanish-American War the Regiment was reorganized by bringing in five companies of the old 15th Pennsylvania Infantry, National Guard, which went out of existence at the end of that war.

The old 16th is a country regiment with companies scattered in the thriving oil and manufacturing towns and cities of Western Pennsylvania. Oil City, the headquarters of the Regiment, is the home station of three units, Headquarters, Supply and "D" Companies; Corry of "A" Company, Bradford of "C," Machine Gun Company and Sanitary Detachment; Kane of "E" Company, Franklin of "F" Company, Erie of "G" Company, Ridgway of "H" Company, Warren of "I" Company, Kittanning of "K" Company, Butler of "L" Company and Grove City of "M" Company.

Colonel Rickards, the Commander of this Regiment, is an officer of unusual ability and force, kindly in his treatment of officers and men, yet so firm and forceful in all his dealings with them that he easily has the very best of discipline among the troops of his command.

Lieutenant-Colonel Gamble served in the Spanish-American War as a Captain in the 15th Pennsylvania U. S. Volunteers and later came into the 16th Infantry, National Guards of Pennsylvania, at the end of that war. He is a physician and surgeon of large practice in private life, who has sacrificed all thought of monetary gains, coming from a large and lucrative practice to give to his country the benefit of his service and experience in this hour of crisis.

Among the officers now serving with the Regiment are men of ability and prominence in their home localities, among whom may be mentioned Major Charles B. Smathers, an educator of large experience in the service of the State of Pennsylvania, at the time of the call on the State Board of Education. He, too, is a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

Among the field and line officers of this Regiment are to be found men of prominence in all walks of life in the communities from which they come: Doctors, lawyers, educators, merchants, engineers, all giving up, willingly, their lucrative civil employments to enter the service of the country, at large financial loss to themselves and families.

The 16th Pennsylvania Infantry was mustered into United States service in the Spanish-American War May 10, 1898, as the 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers. Again it saw Federal service in 1916, when on June 24, 1916, it mobilized at Mt. Gretna, Pa., under the call of the President, dated June 18, 1916, and was mustered into the Federal service for Mexican Border duty on July 3, 1916, serving until muster-out in January 1917, when the several company units were mustered out of Federal service at their respective home stations at various dates in the month of January, 1917.

The 8th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard, from which the 112th drew largely in making up its strength to that required by the new Table of Organization, comes from the central part of Pennsylvania, at all points radiating from the State capitol at Harrisburg, having companies stationed as follows: Harrisburg, Companies "D" and "I," Supply Company, Headquarters Company and Machine Gun Company; York, two (2) Companies; Chambersburg, one (1) Company; Bedford, one (1) Company; Carlisle, one (1) Company; Huntingdon, one (1) Company; Pottsville, one (1) Company; Mahanoy City, one (1) Company; Tamaqua, one (1) Company. Thus the old 8th Pennsylvania Infantry was typically representative of the geographical central part of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and bears an enviable reputation historically, it having participated in the Inaugural Ceremonies at Washington, D. C., of nine (9) Presidents of the United States, from James A. Garfield to Woodrow Wilson, both inclusive. It participated also in a military capacity at the Inaugural Ceremonies of ten (10) Governors of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, from Governor Hartranft, in 1876, to John K. Tener, in 1911, both inclusive. At the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the Battle of North Point and the Bombardment of Fort McHenry at Baltimore, Md., the 8th Pennsylvania Infantry was present, representing the Pennsylvania Divison on that occasion. From its organization in 1874 until it entered into the World War the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment has taken part in a military way in many State and National ceremonies, including the Centennial Parade in Philadelphia in 1876 and the Jubilee Parade in Philadelphia at the close of the Spanish-American War.

In all the mining and railroad strikes or disorders in Pennsylvania it was always depended upon for the preservation and maintenance of order. As such it was present at Pittsburgh, Pa., during the Railroad Riots in 1876; at Shamokin, Pa., in 1875, during "Molly Maguire Riots;" at Mahanoy City Miners' Riots in 1876; Homestead, Pa., Carnegie Steel Strike in 1892; Hazleton Anthracite Coal Strike in 1897; Shenandoah, Pa., Anthracite Coal Strike in 1900, and again at Shenandoah, Pa., in 1902.

The Regiment was organized in 1874 with the election of John P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon, Pa., as Colonel, who later, during the Spanish-American War in 1898, was Brigadier General, commanding the 8th Pennsylvania U. S. Volunteer Infantry (8th Pennsylvania National Guard), the 12th Pennsylvania U. S. Volunteer Infantry (12th Pennsylvania National Guard) and the 3d Virginia U. S. Volunteer Infantry at Camp Alger, Va., and later at Camp Meade near Middletown, Pa. At the termination of hostilities with Spain the 12th Pennsylvania U. S. Volunteer Infantry and the 3d Virginia U. S. Volunteer Infantry Regiments were mustered out of the U. S. service, but the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment was retained in the service, and during the winter of that year, 1898, it was sent to Augusta, Ga., and was camped on part of the ground of what is now, 1918, known as Camp Hancock, Ga. It was mustered out of the Federal service in March, 1899, after service of eleven months.

With the other National Guard Regiments the 8th Pennsylvania Infantry served on the Mexican Border in 1916-1917 and was noted for its high degree of efficiency attained there.

The personnel of the officers of the old 8th Pennsylvania Infantry before its consolidation with the 16th Pennsylvania Infantry into the 112th U. S. Infantry was second to none. They were men of the highest standing, character and integrity, to whom personal sacrifice in the service of their country was an honor and a privilege. The Colonels commanding the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment have in the past been representative citizens in the communities wherein they resided, always willingly serving the State to the detriment of their private or business affairs, Colonel John P. S. Gobin, afterward Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; Colonel Frank J. Magee, Colonel Theodore F. Hoffman, Colonel Joseph B. Hutchinson, Colonel Maurice E. Finney having in turn been the Commanding Officers of the Regiment. They need no eulogy. The names of these men speak for themselves. The long list of Lieutenant-Colonels of the Regiment have been men of the same caliber, the last being Lieutenant-Colonel Frank E. Ziegler, a lawyer of prominence from Harrisburg, Pa., who gave up his life upon the altar of his country when he died in its service in February, 1918, at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, as the result of an accident incurred in the performance of his duties.

Thus ends at this time a short history of the Organization of the 112th U. S. Infantry, composed of these two Pennsylvania Volunteer Regiments. What the future has in store for the men and officers of the new 112th Infantry cannot be told, but they are ready and willing to a man to support the Flag and the Government it represents with their life's blood if needs be on any battlegrounds of the world, so that Liberalism, Justice and Freedom shall prevail throughout its realms.
